'Using Key Word Sign in Daily Life'

Intermediate Workshop Qualification

Pre-requisite: The 'Getting Started with Key Word Sign' certificate is a pre-requisite for this course. KWSA may request a copy of your certificate to confirm your eligibility.

In this workshop, you will:

- Revise the signs of the Interactive Vocabulary learned in 'Getting Started with Key Word Sign.' You will then learn between 80-100 new signs - topics such as: food, colours, animals, people, places, action and numbers. You will also learn the 2 handed fingerspelling alphabet.
- practice key word sign and gesture in familiar everyday activities, routines, games and songs
- learn how to create a sign environment using strategies and resources to encourage and support the use of sign.

The focus of this course is building your skills in signing with accuracy and fluency through individual, small group and whole group activities.
