

Support Purpose (Name)	What it is used for (Purpose)	How it can be used (Flexibility)
Core supports	To enable participants to complete activities of daily living.	NDIA Managed	Plan Managed	Self-Managed
		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Within support purpose <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Across other purpose areas	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Within support purpose <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Across other purpose areas	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Within support purpose <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Across other purpose areas
Capital supports	Investments, such as assistive technologies - or for Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA).	Participant budgets for this support purpose are restricted to purchase of specific items identified in the participant's plan. Participants can request funding in this area to visual/aided supports for communication, including KWS visual resources. If NDIA Managed, it can be challenging to find an NDIS provider of KWS supports who is registered for provision of Assistive Technology.
Capacity-building supports	Includes assessment supports, training supports, strategy development supports, and therapeutic supports (including Early Childhood Intervention) to assist the development of, or to increase, a participant's skills and their capacity for independence and community participation.	NDIA Managed	Plan Managed	Self-Managed
		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Within support purpose <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Across other purpose areas	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Within support purpose <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Across other purpose areas (There may be increased flexibility based on the Plan Manager's assessment of the support)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Within support purpose <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Across other purpose areas

*The NDIS Support Catalogue, along with the Price Guide, is used by Providers to guide what services they can offer, what maximum price they can claim, and what support item numbers they are able to claim against for their services. These documents are located on the NDIS website <https://www.ndis.gov.au/>.